DAS NUTZFAHRZEUGPORTAL

[Why you should be there]

JANN FEHLAUER
Managing Director
DEKRA Automobil GmbH

After a break of three years, we once again returned to the DEKRA Commercial Vehicle Outlook Conference in June 2022. As a result of the pandemic pause, many of us were looking forward to meeting again in person. And I was not disappointed and experienced a lively and dynamic event.

After the pandemic-related turbulence, it is more important than ever to return to business as usual. With the fifth DEKRA Commercial Vehicle Outlook conference in October 2023, we are back to the „normal cycle“. This means that the conference is always to be staged in „non-IAA years“.

The technical topicality, on the one hand, and the direct exchange, on the other, has always been the supporting pillar of our event. Since its first launch in 2015, the conference practically established itself as the central forum for everything concerning safety and sustainability of commercial vehicles. It brings together vehicle manufacturers and suppliers, practitioners from the transport sector, politicians, and scientists in order to take a comprehensive and holistic approach to the hot topics in the industry.

The fact that DEKRA is the driving force behind it all is no surprise as it is simply in our DNA. We have been working for road safety for almost a century and are today the largest non-listed expert organization in the world – the global partner for a safer and more sustainable world. And: DEKRA e.V. is at its root supported by members of the transport and logistics branch. The sustainability of the commercial vehicle is and remains one of our core concerns.

I am therefore already eager to participate in the next edition of our outlook conference. We are continuing to base it around an attended event – around the networks, a face-to-face exchange of ideas, real-life contact. I would be delighted if you decided to join us.
